“ Danielle is my 2nd cousin on my dads side. Though we always had the family get together connection, we connected on a personal level in 2016. We began to talk often on the phone. Going to church with her and her family was always enjoyable and brought me joy to be a apart of that intimate spiritual relationship.

I witnessed her love for our Lord and saw how wonderful of a mom she was to her children. She was very much in love with her then husband, and went above and beyond to make her marriage work, though her struggles began to be tough. She wanted to be the best she could be in the eyes of God and worked very hard to make life enjoyable for her kids. Now that she has crossed over into the Lords house, she is at peace and feels the overwhelming love that she always knew Jesus had for her. I miss you little cos . Rest in peace in the arms of our Lord and know you are loved.
