Darlene and John are a true love story. Meeting at the age of 13, they grew up together knowing they would never part. They held true to their vows, “until death do us part” while her hand in his.

Darlene had a fierce love for her family. Together with John, they built a dynasty of Love, Respect, and Faith. Not only did Darlene’s passion run deep for her family, she also expressed her creative passion in her gardening.

Darlene had the remarkable quality of making friends wherever she went. The past few years, the Clinton Township Senior Center was a place to exercise and mingle with peers. However, the latter is what she enjoyed best...making new friends and sharing her beautiful smile and huge heart with anyone she met.
