

Davalene Randolph

October 29, 1938 - March 17, 2016

Davalene Randolph, 78 years, passed away on March 17th., 2016 at McLaren Hospital in Mt. Clemens, MI. We will miss her dearly; with her great sense of humor, quick wit, and stories of her life. She is survived by her two grandchildren: Michelle and Randall, of Alabama. She is also survived by her dear sister, Stella Bown and family, as well as BobbyAnn, Phyllis, Nancy, and Marilyn. Davalene endured much tragedy in her life, but her positive attitude and perseverance afforded her the strength to move forward. She will be remembered for her southern cooking (to feed an army), her kindness, her sincerity and her selflessness. One of her favorite quotes was to paraphrase her beloved husband, Donald, saying, "When I would say I was a nobody, he (Donald) would say, God don't make nobodies".

Lovingly,

Colleen (niece)

“ Aunt Dave,

You were such a gentle and kind lady. My only regret is that I didn't get to know you a little better than I did. Your glowing face and beautiful smile has marked my soul and you will never be forgotten.

As you would say to me, I say back to you.

Love you Babe!
