November 29, 1963 - April 24, 2020

David J. Schaible, age 56, passed away suddenly at his home in Clay Twp., MI on April 24, 2020 due to natural causes. He was born on November 29, 1963, in St. Clair Shores, MI and grew up in Harrison Twp. Dave was a certified electronic technician and worked for PSI Repair Services, Inc. Dave was a kind, humble, and generous man with a heart of gold that loved his family. He enjoyed spending time on his boat on Lake St. Clair, and constantly found ways to improve all things electronic and mechanical. Like his father, Dave was a hardworking man and was determined to fix even the most challenging of automobiles. He had a passion for building remote control airplanes, flying them at local parks in his free time, and for his nieces and nephews at family gatherings.

Dave is survived by his parents, Fred and Lydie Schaible; and his siblings, Mary (Mike) Minaudo, Cathy (Rob) Deneweth, Fritz (Linda) Schaible, and Julie (Dean) Sabelhaus. He was a loving uncle to Marci (Jim), Michael, Dana, Tereza (Dan), Frederick, Jack and Clare; and a great uncle to Delaney, Max, Rowan, and Louie. Dave will be greatly missed by all. He was predeceased by his nephew Robert Deneweth.

The family will be holding a private memorial at a later date.

In lieu of flowers or gifts, the family requests donations be sent to a charity of your choice or the Capuchin Monastery in Dave's honor.

“ I am very sad to find out about Dave. We were friends that would talk occasionally and I wondered why he hadn't responded to email a while back. We met in an electronics class at Macomb Community College. Here's a couple pictures from one of the times he took me boating:
