“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for I too know the pain of losing someone as special as a father. May your family find comfort as I have in knowing that our loving heavenly Father promises us that very soon he will 'swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces.' (Isaiah 25:8) What a wonderful day that will be!

“ I remember the first time I met Dave and that was at Chap's (formely known as Looney Tunes) and one day after work me and some of my co-workers would go up there and have a few drinks and BS afterwards and me being a fairly young naive pool player would challenge Dave to a game of pool. Well I think we all know how that ended with me getting my tail beat from pillar to post but I wouldn't give up against him and still I got my tail beat again and again. Dave wasn't just a very good pool player but a teacher as well giving me pointers along the way. Slowly I started to get it and managed to get a few wins under my belt against him but I still think I'm on the minus side of the ol' win/loss record. Dave was a good friend who will sorely be missed by many. I know dave is upstairs right now not only winning games but sinking a few 8 balls on the break. Rest In Peace old friend.
