“ Our family sends our condolences. When I seen the last name Dickinson. I had to look back on some of the family tree I have been searching thru, to see if we were related. it appears that the connection goes back to Great-great Grand father, Samuel B. Dickinson. Whom among his children were Samuel and Franklin. Franklin would be my Great grand father, whom among his children came Vernon, who is my Grand father and my father Raymond Leonard Dickinson, father. I am named after my father. May God comfort you and your entire family during this time of loss.
