“ My strongest memory of Debbie goes way back when she was probably 4 years old and all of us kids, the bigger kids, was playing in the pool jumping after money (pennies) and we got out of the pool and nobody saw Debbie climb up the ladder and get in the pool, she was going to get pennies next thing we know my mom yelled Debbie's in the pool drowning and I ran jumped over the wall and she had already went under and pulled her out but that was the worst memory, the best of the memories was her coming to visit with my wife and with Rita and always having a good time.
