“ Grandma will forever be in my heart. Over the past two years I got to know her she made such an impact on me as a person. She was beautiful inside and out. She loved and cared about everyone so deeply. Even in her final days she didn't want anyone to be sad. She taught me that family isn't always blood and she loved me and my son as if we had always been around. I am so grateful to have known and spent so much time with her. She will always hold a very special place in my heart and this world is missing a very special person now that God has chosen to take her home. I know she will always watch over me and be applauding all of our accomplishments big or small because that is who she is. Thank you Grandma for teaching me how to love better. I never got to know my own grandparents I am so blessed to have had Grandma in my life. I love you forever and always Grandma. I promise to make sure our baby always knows how much you loved them before you even meet them. As Landyn said to me....we will be with you again and I know you will be waiting with open arms.

“ Deloris ( Mom) always called me her adopted daughter. We have had many beautiful memories over the years. Sometimes we even got in trouble together. She was an inspiration to others and a pillar of strength. She had struggles over the years but she always had a smile on her face. When you look the word beautiful up in the dictionary you will see her as the definition. She was always there to listen, laugh and love. I will miss going to her choir concerts and watching her make beautiful artwork. I will miss you greatly. I'll love you always and forever. Fly high and sing with the angels. Help Jesus paint the sky with your beautiful artwork. Thank you mama for giving me my best friend, your daughter Yvonne. I Love You, Carla
