“ Dennis Kane, my uncle Denny was the brother of my mother Donna Joyce Kane, who's married name was Donna Joyce Crowell. My uncle Denny was a special man in many ways. I considered highly intelligent well read with knowledge at times of an encyclopedia. I enjoyed his company and his stories and all the bits of information he had accumulated over the years regarding many different topics. In later years, I looked forward to his once a month phone call! and if he didn't call, I became quite concerned. Dennis kane always bragged about his sons Michael and Jonathan, and loved them dearly. I believe my uncle Denny is in heaven now with his mother and sister Donna and out of pain. He will be missed quite a bit and for sure that once a month phone call will be missed as well ; as his laugh! that infectious laugh that made you laugh. As seen in the picture below as an infant, he was born with a smile and laughter sure to follow.
