“ To Karen and Dave and Mick and Tim and to all those impacted by Dennis life, my heart and prayers go with you. I am so thankful for the many memories of Dennis' grace and compassion, and how his sense of humor and fabulous laugh wamed our welcome whenever our familes got together. My son, Jess, remembers most the note of encouragement he sent to meet him in a time of struggle; "Don't give up," he wrote, All you need is Jesus.”

“ We love you Dennis, Karen and your family. You will be greatly missed by your family and friends. There is just never enough time to get together with the people we love. We remember those baseball days with the boys. Good times, fun times. Rest in peace our friend, we love you and will always remember you and the good person that you were here on this earth.

“ Dennis was a good friend. He lived not far from me around the corner. Dennis and Roger were friends of our my family, the Stec's. He was an admirable man and I enjoyed Dennis and Roger very much. They knew my brother Rick Stec and would visit. One time they actually defended me against my brother, when he hit me and that was enjoyable. They kick his butt. Too bad we lost touch after high school. Wish Dennis had come to our school reunions. I hope that he died peacefully. I will remember Dennis in my prayers.
