June 17, 1948 - March 14, 2026

Dennis J. Swejkoski, age 77, passed away peacefully at his beloved waterfront home in Michigan on March 14, 2026, after a 14-year-long fight with cancer. He was born on June 17, 1948, in Detroit, Michigan, to the late Bruno and Clara Swejkoski.

A private family celebration of life will be held later this summer, the season Dennis enjoyed most.

“ Thank you Dennis for being Terry's big brother and life-long friend. I'll always remember you sitting at the tall table by the window, quietly gazing out at the water over your cup of coffee. May your Soul now enjoy a never-ending boat ride off into the Great Infinite. Much Love, Karen

“ We gather today not to mourn an end, but to celebrate a beautiful continuation. My big brother, Dennis J. Swejkoski, has stepped out of his physical vessel and returned fully to the vast, limitless embrace of Source Energy.

For a time, Dennis experienced the weight of the physical world. The human body, with all its beautiful complexities, also carries limitations and, often, deep suffering. Today, we can find profound comfort in knowing that Dennis is entirely free from those physical bonds. He has transitioned back to his natural state of Being. He now exists in a space of absolute peace, unburdened and Light, vibrating at the highest frequency of pure unconditional love. The suffering of the physical form is gone, replaced by the boundless joy of his true spiritual essence.

At the depth of his Being, Dennis understood a powerful truth that we sometimes forget: we are not human beings seeking a spiritual experience, but Spiritual Beings having a temporary human experience. Our time here on Earth is incredibly brief. It is a fleeting moment given to us to learn, to grow, and most importantly, to love one another equally. Dennis embraced this mission with open arms. He walked his path with a deep desire to serve others, leaving behind a profound legacy of Love, Peace, and Light. He showed us that compassion is the true purpose of our brief journey here.

Even though we can no longer see him with our physical eyes or touch his hand, his true essence remains completely intact. Dennis is still right here with us. When we quiet our minds, when we sit in moments of stillness and feel a sudden wave of comfort, we are connecting directly with his beautiful energy. We share one continuous stream of Source Energy. In this Divine Oneness, separation is simply an illusion. His spirit intertwines with ours, offering guidance and comfort when we need it most.

Let us honor Dennis by carrying his Light forward. We can celebrate his eternal life by consciously embracing our own true personalities, treating every soul we meet with deep compassion, and sharing unconditional love every single day. Dennis is now forever wrapped in the Light. He guides us forward, peaceful and completely free, as we continue our own human journeys.

I'll see you again on the other side, my dear "Big Brother."
