“ Diane was a good friend to me. I stood up in her and Richard’s wedding and was very involved in James’ upbringing during his toddler years. I remember her as a sweet, soft-spoken person who loved her family very much. I regret that the last time I saw her was shortly after Frank and I moved to Imlay City in 2016. We promised each year at Christmas to meet again, but life got in the way. Condolences to her grieving family. 💕Cathy Carpenter
