To the Walker Tribe

Sincere condolences & prayers for your loss. Growing up in Shiloh Missionary Baptist church, I don't recall Deacon Walker ever missing service. But of course as a child my measurement of time wasn't fully developed. So it seemed he never missed a service. I loved prayer! Rev Portis would be talking and soon he'd be in a preach moved by the Spirit of the Lord. You could tell when Rev Portis was full cause his eyes get to watering he grab his hanky wipe his eyes and his nose would be just as red as an apple he'd blow his nose then turn it over to Deacon Walker to pray... he's pray so til my little soul was be stirred. It became the highlight of Sunday service. Oh my goodness... RIP Deacon "Doc" Walker at ease soldier, you have finished your course. Great man will be greatly missed.

Warm regards
