“ Dear Sue and family,

I was sooo sorry to read of Don passing in the paper. Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you. He was quite the man! He and I had some of the most wonderful talks at the store that I can remember. He was a man who loved life and was not afraid to tell you about it. I will remember my time with him always. Sue, I am so sorry for your loss, you seam to be one of the most connected couples I have ever seen in my life.. May the rest be so lucky in a mate.

If you would ever like to have lunch or talk call me (810 9822934. When I was at ACO, I thought you two were like family.
