“ After 51 years of friendship, I am not sure what can be said. (I remember going over Don's house on Audubon(?) in Detroit in kindergarden and stealing a few marbles.) The memories are countless and sweet as we grew up together and passed through the stages of our lives. I love Don like a brother and will always remember him as the kind, considerate, generous, fun loving guy he was. My deepest condolences to Tammy and the kids and to all of the Rentz family. The loss of the Big Man will leave a huge hole in our lives.

Jim, it was our house on Audubon and Mac, my brother that you all would hang out and listen to Bill Cosby and the Tigers. I remember you playing poker and laughing always. My heart is broken to hear of Don's passing. The Rentz family was seemed so close, I can't imagine losing a sibling. Prayers and comfort to all for your tremendous loss.

Jimmy D., we did live on Audubon before Berkshire--4177 Audubon to be exact. I think we moved from there when Don was in first grade, so you have big cred in knowing Don a very long time!! Thanks for all of your support and to your sister Sharon too for coming to the Mass and lunch. xoxo Cap
