“ Many fond memories of Don, whom we affectionately called "Duck". We hung around together in high school and did many activities together, some good and some not too good, but always had a good time. Don was a master pool shark, and we spent many hours in George's pool room, trying to earn a few dollars to go and buy a sack of White Castles. Very glad to have contact with Don and Suzy recently, and a luncheon with some high school classmates, which will be remembered always, Rest peacefully good buddy.
