“ Last year Don and Renee invited me to stay the weekend at their house. Don, knowing I enjoyed reading and was into genealogy, offered me a book about a great -great-aunt who was the first woman to get a pilot license. Reading the book I found out she was more than just that. She was also a magazine writer who wrote about her exploits, including being the first woman to fly across the English Channel. I enjoyed the book very much. Don had an instinct for that tipe of thing

“ My Brother is and was the best! He had a great big heart for his family and friends. I loved his laugh and his sense of humor. He had a great love for music and loved the Blues so I'm lighting a blue candle for my sweet, loving Brother. I will miss you until I see you again big brother!

Love and peace

“ Don was very patient man. A Renee told me. He asked her to marry her many times. One day she agreed, as long as it was on April fools Day, the wedding was done on lunch brake at work, and they would be wearing white t-shirts saying BRIDE and GROOM. Don was ok with that. He loved Renee that much. He was the man Renee deserved at last.
