“ I met Mrs. Paton 4 years ago at a family outing at the home of her great nephew Steve Coddington. I was and remain to this day her son Michael Parrow's girlfriend.

Michael had told me his mom was afflicted with dementia and may not be clear on subjects or she may be repetitive.

Well to my delight and surprise - we shared a beer or two and she recounted several funny stories of Michael and her other children up at Weber Lake in Wolverine. Mrs. Paton was a genuinely warm caring lovely lady who treasured her family. She will be greatly missed.
