“ I first met Donna when she came to work for me at Mary Maxim as the Fabric Department manager. She started on Monday and we left for Houston, TX, and International Quilt Market on Thursday. What a champ!!! We shared a room and I got food poisoning. So here's Donna, sharing a room with someone she's know less than a week who is sicker than a dog, buying fabric at a trade show for the first time. Did she panic----NOPE, didn't even blink an eye. Just unlimited smiles and excitement about the task at hand and meeting Ty Pennington. A woman of incredible strength, calm and creativity. I'll never forget her.

You have my deepest sympathy.

P.S. I'm sure Pinky Shears has a place on the team in Heaven.
