“ Duane and I made so many memories over our 40+ years of friendship. One thing I admired about Duane is that he was always honest, might not be what you needed to know anything about, but if you asked the question he would tell you. I recently was at his new house, and so sad he didnt get the chance to really enjoy it. But with all his health issues he is now in a better place. Prayers of comfort to his family.

Aunt Gerry. I took care of you when you were little and ended up doing it during your health issues. It was my privilege. I'll miss your phone calls, going to breakfast, and talking. Love you.
