“ Gone from our sights but never from our hearts.

Uncle Earl always made me feel loved and welcomed in his home. I remember visiting in the summer and my dad and Uncle Earl always washed all the cars. And the same when they came to Ohio to visit. We'd all be hanging outside playing croquet, badminton or jarts. While everyone lined up cars waiting for their cars turn to be washed.

In the evening it would be playing cards. Or just sitting around reminiscing.

Awesome times!
