“ Who couldn't love Earl. I met Earl when I was working for 24th street McDonalds'. We had Earl spoiled. He would put in his order for Coffee and he made sure we knew that he was a Veteran and also a Senior. Yes he was so funny and he could talk. I recently rand into Earl and Recency. He was the in the same wing and hall that my mother is in. Earl would say that he was the hallway monitor and we had to follow the rules or Earl wanted to try to give you a ticket. I gonna miss Earl. He is in a better place now. Now more sickness. He be making laugh in heaven. God Bless the Family. Remember all the good times. Yours in Christ Jesus. Lurlene Nichols A.K.A.
