“ Ed;

You were My Buddy...My Pal...I will miss your silly jokes, teasing me about my Nascar Driver's, your delicious cooking(especially your fabulous desserts), but most of all, I will miss your huge caring & giving heart!

I can't believe you are gone, My Friend, but will always have a special place in my heart❤️✝

“ Ed was an amazing person, always could make you smile :) I met him through his wonderful wife. Any thing he ever cooked that I tried was delicious, will never forget the huge cookies he would bake and bring to work for us. RIP Ed. you will be missed by many! Prayers for his wife and family at this very difficult time.

“ Ed we love you. When you and mom met the first time hands down it was the greatest thing to have ever happened to our family. The way you loved us and took us under your wing. The way you did it in your own special way was unique, amazing and miraculous, all at once. I could never start to put into words how Amazing of a man your are or how blessed we are to have had met you and had the privilege to have had you as part of our family.

Through the years. I've seen one of the greatest men I've ever known in Action. Wether it was driving truck or wether it was supervising them. flying the planes or crashing them (oops had to put it in there) or tuning on the steam engine for the next threasing bee. Or if it was taking the guys out and about or cooking for them or just talking with them. You always made the top your level. And that's just how you did things.

As for what you've done for me,michelle and Braden. . I couldn't ever thank you enough. I'm never gonna let Braden forget the fact that I've never seen you so happy or so proud of yourself like this before and it's because of what you did for Braden we'll never be able to repay or begin to thank you enough for such an amazing act of Love and kindness. We miss you we are heartbroken and lost without you but we will do what we think you would've wanted us to do to the best of our abilities. Rip we live you

Although we haven't been in touch through the years, I will always remember working with Eddie in the ice cream freezer at London's. There was never a dull moment. I will never forget your smile and your laughter and all of the good times we had golfing and bowling. RIP. Our thoughts and prayers are with your family at this sorrowful time.
