“ I first met Ed when he was hired at Western Asset. I learned he had two very big dogs, buvie?, and he was married. We had such good times together. He offered me some advise at a cross road in my life. I will never forget this. It changed my life. Always will be grateful for his belief in me and how he gave me so much confidence when I was unsure. Always loved you you. You are missed.

“ Ed and I picked up our first game of kick ball at Trombly field on Beaconsfield in Grosse Point Park, MI in the late 1950s. For his size, even back then, he was an extraordinary athlete, including, being a barrel of laughs. His father and family were heartfelt people. Holly, his sister, had the boys chasing her. We all had a big crush on her. I will miss Ed. Max Cawley and I had some good times with Ed as he mastered his profession at the National Bank of Detroit. All of us will miss that big grin Ed.
