“ Elmer Davenport II was my first cousin. We didn't know one another very well because I am 30 years older and lived out of state most of my adult life.

The personal conversations I had with him in recent years revealed to me a kind and sensitive young man who spoke softly and respectfully.

Every time we'd talk there was a ritual: He'd call me Mr. Bolin. I'd say, "We're first cousins. Call me James." He'd smile and say "Yes sir, Mr Bolin." I'd laugh.

My heart breaks for his daughter Lyla and her mother Jennifer. Also for Harold & Laurie and Marilyn & Jeff. May God comfort all grieving hearts.
