“ Sorry for the loss of such a wise tough leader. We've known Elva since I was 5 in Madison Heights. And also as an adult in Lexington! Her and mom in PTA and politics were a great team and we learned a lot from her. She could have written a book. Her love of community and involvement is unsurpassed. She will be missed, there are none like her. Brave, strong, tough, wise and committed. She will never be forgotten. Sincere condolences - Earl Sheets and Kim

“ Elva was a feisty take no prisoners woman in politics and in life. Jim knew Elva since he was a kid. I met Elva in 1983 at Monte Gerald's house when she was running for Madison Heights City Council, after the success of Recall 3 in '83.. I remember her with great fondness and affection. Jim remembers her as a political sounding board and a true icon and friend. Due to Jim's health issues we are unable to express our sorrow in person. Love Always to her family
