My uncle Ernie was a kind soul and very laid-back kind of person. I so much enjoyed gathering with him and my Aunt Fran and cousins when our families got together throughout the years. I have great memories and will certainly miss him. He dressed up and played Santa Claus mini a Christmas for the little ones. You could tell by his voice it was him!

I'm thankful for all the years he had on this earth and praying for my dear aunt Fran who loved him dearly. Xo  Debbie
