“ Eunice and I met when she became a volunteer and prayer warrior for Youth For Christ East Michigan in the early 1990's. This started a life long friendship. After moving we moved to Indiana 6 years ago Eunice would still call me from time to time to see how I was doing and to pray for me. I know she is I heaven enjoying Jesus and continuing to pray for all of us she loved and knew while she walked this side of glory. A great friend and truly follower of Jesus.
