“ I miss playing games with you Grandmama, and reading you stories. We had so much fun! Chutes and Ladder, Jenga were our favorite games.

“ My mother's sister, Aunt Evey took her 3 nieces on a trip of their choosing for their high school graduations. I chose Disney World and in July of 1981 we packed up her car and took a most wonderful trip to FL. We ate at the Crystal Palace and were there for the 4th of July fireworks. My aunt worked in the 1st-3rd Sunday School class at Gratiot Ave Baptist for many years. She was the secretary and the one who got the post cards sent if you missed a Sunday. She was at every one of our birthday parties, family Reunions and Christmas Eve in my parents basement. She was a wonderful Aunt and will be greatly missed. After her hospital stay she was moved closer to me/. I was able to have 5 wonderful visits with her and am grateful for those extra memories I now have. Aunt Evey until we meet again, you are loved and missed.
