Aunt Vicki, I remember the first time I met you. It was at grandma and grandpa Marsiglio's House. I wondered who this beautiful woman was. I wasn't sure how I felt about Uncle Frank having a new family. You were always smiling, so chilled out, and so kind. I loved staying the night and you always made me feel welcomed. It's so hard to believe that you're gone but I'm glad you're reunited with Uncle Frank. Please kiss my sister and tell her how much I love her. May you Rest In Peace

“ My big sister, my guiding light. So many fun times. We learned to dance watching Lawrence Welk, Arthur & Kathryn Murray & American Bandstand. I used to run & jump in your arms & you'd swing me around. Geez, can you imagine? You made up silly songs, a couple I remember. I see you in your children & their children. Your smile, your laugh & your sassy attitude. You aren't here to touch but I know you're not far away. Love you!
