“ Mom, I can't understand why something is keeping me from you is it because you want me to remember the best of memories we've shared together or maybe it's because you don't want me to see you in this way? I have tried my very best to get to you and nothing is working right for the past 3 days it's been nothing but trials and tribulations for me between getting a plane to take me to you, the delays, the cancellations, the weather back home is it you telling me you're alright and your finally able to rest? I'm sorry that I can't get there to be with you and I will always remember what you told me before, " life is short enjoy it while you can stay happy never sad and do for you no one else ". I know you know how much I love you I will never forget you. You are my rock and now my angel fly high my sweet mama be pain free, walk Like You wanted to walk again and enjoy the beauty of Heaven God just received another beautiful angel and that is you Mom. My love always and forever your baby daughter Susie Q I miss you so much till we see each other again save me a place so I can be near you. Give Kim a big hug for me tell him I love and miss him so much he's always in my heart love you both forever and always 🥹🥹

“ Hay Ma, It's your favorite son in law as you would tell me. Now that you're in heaven I am guessing you can now listen to Tommy Dorsie, Glenn Miller and all those big bands we used to listen to on the way to Armada flea market (580am music memory of your life). You will be greatly missed by your favorite son in law. Keep the big band music playing and have a bowl of spaghetti for me so when it's my time to visit you in heaven we'll have a good time reminiscing.
