To Those I Love

When I am gone, just release me, let me go – so I can move into my afterglow. You mustn't tie me down with your tears; let's be happy that we had so many years. I gave you my love, you can only guess how much you gave me in happiness.

I thank you for the love you each have shown, but now it's time I traveled on alone.
So grieve for me awhile, if grieve you must, then let your grief be comforted with trust. Its only for a while that we must part, so bless the memories within your heart. And then, when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you with a smile and a "Welcome Home."

“ Good bye Aunt Florence. It saddened me to hear of your passing. I'm truly sorry that I did not have the chance to get to know you better as an adult. I have bits and pieces of you in my memories as a child, but sadly, not as an adult. I'll never know why we didn't have any family reunions. My only knowledge of you and your family came from my Father and your brother, Bob. That does not mean that you weren't cared for, or about. Just that the distance kept us apart. Go in peace. To cousin Bonnie and family, I'm so sorry for your loss, as I am for the Weiss family also.

“ Aunt Florence generously shared pictures and memories of her brother and my Dad, Bob Gardner, in the last few years - a caring, sweet lady. My sympathies to cousin Bonnie and family. Nancy Gardner

“ A few hours ago, I showed Robin the picture of your mom. He thought Amanda resembled her as well. On behalf of Amanda, Haley, and Kamryn we are sorry she is no longer with you. I am glad both Amanda and Kamryn got to meet her this summer. Remember, she is healed and with Jesus!! What a blessing. We love you!!
