

Frances A. Robbins

April 5, 1944 - April 27, 2021

Frances A. Robbins, age 77, of East China, passed away on April 27, 2021. She was born on April 5, 1944, in Detroit MI. She married Clarence G. Robbins on August 1st, 1964 who is retired and an active resident in the St. Clair MediLodge.

Fran's passion in life was acting. She acted in MTV music videos, voice overs, community plays and musicals, Detroit based movies, TV commercials as well as taught acting classes for up-and-coming actors and actresses. One of the most notable videos she was in was MTV music video "Talking in your Sleep" by the Romantics. Fran and Clem still own a 1978 Caprice which was featured in a movie she was in! She was a member of the Screen Actors Guild (SAG) and had the opportunity to vote on the movie awards throughout the years and even attended the ceremony one year in L.A.

She is survived by her children; Lisa (Allan) Boots and Michelle (James) Aranowski and her grandchildren – Jordan, Lindsey, Megan, Derrick and Carson.

She was preceded in death by her father, Anthony Crimaldi, her mother Mamie Crimaldi, and her sister Rosaria "Sadie" (DeGrandis).

A private celebration of life will be held with immediate family. View obituary and share memories at www.jowettfuneraldirectors.com.

In lieu of flowers, please send a memorial gift to the Cancer Foundation (www.cancer.org).

Jowett Funeral Home – New Haven.

Tribute Wall

LB

“ Our sincere condolences on the loss of your wife and fellow classmate. She appeared to be a very talented person and I'm sure a loving wife and mother.

Larry and Marcia Banish

Lawrence W Banish - May 09, 2021 at 10:48 AM

CF

“ Lisa and Bells our deepest sympathy to you and your family . Your mom “Mrs Robbins” to me was the second mother living right next door . So many fabulous memories growing up on Barrington ! Forever in our hearts . Love you all and know she is with my dad having a good time together again .

Cathy Fowler - April 30, 2021 at 08:44 AM