“ My dear Tom. No matter what we went through I still love you with all my heart. The one thing we did so wonderful is created our sons who love you always and miss you. One day we will all be united again along with Max and Amber. You were always my best friend no matter how we would bicker. I miss your phone calls. I feel you visit in my dreams. Derek and Josh have missed you more than you could know. They need their Dad. I realize I cannot be Mom and Dad.

“ Will always remember Tom. I spent some of my younger years living across the street from him in East Detroit. We did a lot of fighting during those years but always rose above it. Haven't seen him for almost 60 years but remember him fondly.
