“ I was glad my family and I got to know Frank. He was a kind companion to my mom. Frank loved to talk and to hear my funny work stories. He had lots of his own great stories to share too. Frank will be missed❤️

“ Uncle Pete always gave the best hugs. I will miss that for sure. I was fortunate to be able to see him often while growing up. I remember the times we had in Florida, going coon hunting with him, my brothers and my dad and him and aunt Leona coming over to play cards. Thanks for the memories uncle Pete. Much love Rachel, Luke and Logan.

“ While I didn't get to spend a lot of time with him growing up... I did get to talk to him a lot the last couple years. I will cherish all the memories that I do have with him and I hope to see him again someday in Heaven. Rest well Dad until we meet again.

“ He was “Uncle Pete” to me! Always joking and making us laugh/smile. He was my mom's little brother and a favorite uncle. I didn't get to see him often, but so happy to have visited with him in recent days. My thoughts and prayers are with Sue and his family.
