“ Greg was such a part of our families lives...One memory I have is when he drove to Idaho to spend time with us..and meet my children.The kids fell in love with "Uncle Greg" , who had great adventures and stories to share.
He was a close friend of my brother, Gordie..and my father.
Some how Michigan won't be the same without being able to visit Greg when I come home to see everyone.
Good bye friend..may you rest in peace! Sharlene Radford Curry

“ I regret that I was unable to attend Greg's Mass. I haven't seen much of Greg in recent years. But he was there in my heart. At the funerals of both my Dad(Harry) and my Mother,(Rosalie) even though he was in poor health, he "showed up." That ment a lot to me.

A prefered memory is the night at the Dorsey House when Greg put a dressed out pig in the freezer so it would be staring at Eral when he opened in the morning. Those were the days when he was trucking cattle with John Radford.

I know he will be deeply missed by all, I am also sure he is resting much more comfortably now.

“ One of my favorite memories of Uncle Greg came recently when he got to meet my husband who had spent time trucking. They talked for hours about trucking and all the different routes and items that he had transported. I realized later that I have always had a high view of truckers because of my Uncle Greg. Honorable men who provide for their families, who work hard and are strong and brave. Love you Uncle Greg!

“ Greg was not only a nephew but a treasured childhood friend. Fearless, self-confident and great fun to be with. We rode his horse, attempted and failed to break in two 3 year old horses, camped, practiced target shooting, hunted, swam and fished in the Black River. Spending the summer with Greg and his sisters was storybook perfect, full of adventures and fun... especially compared to my home in downtown Mt. Clemens. The thought of those memories never fails to bring on a smile. Greg's quick wit and humorous sayings never faded away.... they improved. His children would make anyone proud.... and he was...Greg will be sorely missed.
