“ I met Gary in Meijer about 2yrs ago . Me , my wife and our daughter . I can't even say in words how great of a man he was . He always joked around with our daughter who is now 4yrs old . She loved him and each time we went in that store she would always say ... "Daddy I wanna go see my buddy" it started as buddy and then she knew his name . And there wasn't a time we'd go in there which was Many times a week and she would not leave me alone until she saw Gary . She would say it repeatedly . Daddy I wanna see Gary I wanna see Gary . I went awhile not seeing him at the store and found out this evening that he passed away . My daughter was with me when she found out tonight along with my wife and my daughter cried so hard when hearing he passed. I am heartbroken as so is my wife . Our walks in Meijer will never be the same again . Gary rest well buddy you will definitely be missed ❤️😭

P.S. we bought our daughter a beaded chain tonight in Meijer and she picked a blue pearl on there kissed it and said Gary is in this blue stone and I will always miss him

“ I just got back to Port Huron, or I would have paid proper respect in person. Gary was a bright light in this World, everyone wanted to be around him because he was positive in every way! Even when we were kids he was the one we all wanted to hang out with. His unique wit, and charm had a special presence. I last spoke to him back at sav-a-lot when I came back from Florida, and it was so good to speak with him, I introduced him to my Wife Renee', and we both enjoyed the time together. My prayers are with the family, Rest in Paradise Brother!

Gary had a gift. Whether you were family, friend, co-worker, or an acquaintance, he made you feel special. He made us smile. Even if he didn't know it before, I hope he can see now how he touched our lives. How admired, appreciated and well-thought-of he was, and still is. Thanks for the memories. Gary. And, as he once said to me, "Who loves ya?" Me for one. And many others as well. L.
