“ Gary worked for me in the Mortar platoon in A co. 1st Bn. 225 th Infantry. He was a hard working Sgt. who wanted to have the best gun crew always. I look back at our days in the national guard as good memories. We trained hard and did our best. He will be missed.

He fought for a long , long time ! Now it's his turn to rest . My prayers to out to him , Kathy & all that cared. He would do anything for you and although we didn't do much together in recent years , We did when we were younger and I've been reflecting on that lately .
