

Mr. George Epperson

February 22, 1947 - February 8, 2016

George Epperson, age 68, of Clyde Township, passed away peacefully, on February 8, 2016, in his home, with his family by his side, after a battle with cancer. He was born on February 22, 1947, in Pineville, Kentucky, to the late Charlie and Maggie Epperson. He married Shelia L. Davenport on July 18, 1966, in Pineville, Kentucky.

George retired from Blue Water Plastics, after 25 years of service. He enjoyed hunting, fishing, doing yardwork and spending time with his family. He was an avid collector who enjoyed helping his family, with anything that needed to be done. He was a loving husband, father, grandfather, great grandfather and brother.

He is survived by his wife of nearly 50 years, Shelia Epperson of Clyde Township, daughters; Rhonda (Michael) Phillips of Kimball Township, Deborah (David) Ridley of Marysville, Robin Epperson of Marysville, son, Scott (Stephanie VanTroostenbergh) Epperson of Port Huron Township, seven grandchildren; Heather (Randy) Green, Richard Epperson, Amanda (Patrick) Parsons, Samantha Ridley, Jordan Epperson, Laikyn Phillips and Nash Phillips, four great grandchildren; Jayden, Trevor, Connor and Lily, brothers; Jack (Iveline) Epperson and Michael Epperson, along with several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by two brothers; Ralph Epperson and Charlie Epperson, Jr.

A memorial service will be held at a later date.

Memorial tributes can be made to the wishes of the family.
