“ I consider sharing my personal expression of sympathy for Mr. Gerald Burgess a true honor and privilege though we never met in person. I had the pleasure of meeting him through network media last year when we had a long conversation with daughter, Diane via Skype. I enjoyed his charming personality and natural wit immensely. I felt as though we were old friends perhaps because of his down to earth warmth and good humor. Diane often shared how wonderful, loving and kind and what a great Dad he was. Perhaps it's why I cried when she told me he'd passed into glory to be with the Lord Jesus. And for that reason though his loved ones' sorrow is understandable, we should rejoice at his glorious home going as well as those lives he touched with his and God's love.

“ A great man who will be dearly missed.....Heavens gain and our loss. The Holidays here won't be the same but knowing one day when us Christians are reunited they will be better then ever.
