“ Well there was a time between 1985 and 1989 if you saw Doug then you would see me and John and Vicki or maybe Billy aka the Wog , it's sad that people grow older and apart from each other even though you may see someone every day at work. His family was my family for a couple of years and I'll always have good memories of them. My condolences to Colleen and LaLa... Joey

“ I remember always being fascinated by an old rock collection I found in a Folger's coffee can in Bampa's basement. I eventually found out it was Doug's old collection (I think La had a hand in it as well) and was overjoyed when he said I could have it. He was such a giving person and he gave everything he had to his family. I remember begging him to swing us all around by our hands in the backyard and he'd spend hours giving us all rides despite what I'm sure was a nauseating amount of dizziness! Love you Uncle Dougie. Your joy and your humor will be missed at every family event.

“ One summer Dougie and I took a trip to Camp with our daughters, Emma and Paige when Bud could not make the trip that year. He jokingly became my "second husband" and we even teamed up as a couple as the family played the old board game, "The Newlywed Game." I laughed til it hurt! On the drive home we stopped in Mackinaw City so the girls could visit "Build A Bear." and we ate lunch and walked around and bought some fudge. I will cherish this vacation for the remainder of my life. We had such a good time together.

Always seeing the humor in things, always thinking of others before himself, always quick with the one-liners, always calling me Mare-wee, Dougie was not only the Best Man at our wedding, but the Best Brother-In-Law a girl could ask for!

Words cannot describe how much you will be missed. But I take solace knowing that now you are hanging out with Bumpa, Nana & Grandpa, Meta, Gerald, Grandpa Punch and your Nancy.
