

Gerald J. Skotcher

January 9, 1958 - January 12, 2026

January 9, 1958 – January 12, 2026

Gerald John Skotcher, passed away peacefully in his sleep on January 12, 2026, at his apartment in Port Huron, Michigan.

Gerald loved music and especially enjoyed watching live performances whenever he could. He was a fan of local hockey teams and followed sports closely, with NASCAR always holding a special place for him. He also loved spending time at the beach, appreciating the water, the open air, and the calm that came with it. Often the life of the party, Gerald enjoyed being around others and sharing in moments of fun.

In his later years, Gerald spent much of his time building custom bikes, a hands-on passion that allowed him to create and tinker in his own way. During this time, he was rarely without his dog, Cheddeer, who was his constant companion and meant a great deal to him.

He is survived by his sister, Valerie Skotcher, and his three daughters, Toni Skotcher, Kelly Skotcher, and Danaka Skotcher. He was preceded in death by his parents, Valeria Skotcher and Edward Skotcher, and his brother, Edward Skotcher.

Gerald will be remembered for the things he loved and the moments he shared.

A private service will be held at a later date.
