“ I have so many beautiful and wonderful memories with you. I can't label any one as my favorite. You've always been my favorite person even all the way from over here. Countless summers spent with you and papa, learning all these crafts from beading to crocheting, and sitting with you while you watched your stories; I think I liked watching General Hospital with you the most. I love you so much and will miss you so much more.

Remember all the summers up north? They were amazing, wish we would have known how important it was to take pictures so we would have had more. Did you by chance ever learn how to make callanders like she used to make us? If you did I would love if you could make my daughter one, grandma never for the chance to make her one. I would pause for everything. Life is so short and family is so valuable. Even though sometimes we argue over stupid stuff, I want you to know I will always love you and your sisters. All the good memories I have from my childhood were all memories of all of us enjoying life with grandma.

“ I will always remember most my summers in West Branch with you and Papa. Helping with the yard sale, swimming at Skidway Lake, chicken ramen with two ice cubes (so we didn't burn our mouths), fishing, and the obligatory ride around looking at tornado damage. I always laugh when I remember you telling us how a tornado sounds like a freight train and then yelling "I hear a train, I hear a train!" and us kids RUNNING to hide in the closet. You and Papa were laughing so hard when we came back out. I'll miss you terribly but think of the good times we had together. Love you and miss you! <3
