“ I have a lot of memories of some fun times I had with Bill. We first met when we were in the same first grade class, Mrs LaGuire's at Anderson Elementary School. We had adventures in grade school, high school, college years, military years and adult years. We hung out and partied in Trenton, Carlton, Taylor and a few different times in Port Huron. I hope you find peace now and I hope you're together again with Penny. Finally, I hope they have cigarettes in heaven for you because I know you won't be happy without smokes. If you're out, track down my dad, I'm sure he'll have some. I'll keep you in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Sincere condolences to the family, and other loved ones.

We had the pleasure of visiting with Bill at our 45th Trenton High School Reunion in October, 2013. Most of the classmates reconnected with Bill at our 40th Reunion, and would enjoy talking with Bill over the phone, and of course visiting in person. Some of the classmates had the pleasure of keeping up with Bill throughout the years since high school.

May he rest in peace....

*With great fondness for Bill & Penny,
