“ I have so many great memories... When I was little I looked up to you, and now I look up to you in spirit. Dad you've been gone for a few days now, and I can't stop missing you. That time I was seven, and you taught me how to drive. I remember that I could barely reach the petals while I was sitting on your lap. You let me steer all by myself. I drove for miles, not once did you yell at me. You told me to stay in a straight line and turn slow. I was so happy. When you hugged me, I knew how much you loved me, cause you squeeze me so tight I could hardly breathe. You meant the world to me and will miss you always. Love Your Son Joe Doan

“ I remember Greg as a 4th grader at Grant School in Port Huron. I tutored him during this school year. He would come in to school before the start of each day to review his assignments. We always started the day with a short conversation about how his day was going. He talked about how he had helped with chores before heading to school. He was such a sweet little guy. I'm glad to hear that he had such a fulfilling life!!
