“ I took that picture on my birthday, my dad and I were at some trade center looking around. I think that’s the day we made him a Facebook. Wonder where he got that shirt? That picture reminds me of what he looked like now. All salt and peppery hair.

“ Greg and I were always close as siblings. He was a kind generous person who was always ready to help when someone needed help. We always knew if we hadn’t talked in a few weeks it was time and one of us would always call the other. I am truly devastated over his passing. One day he will be resurrected and be able to enjoy life to the fullest without any of the problems this life has had. My love and deep condolences go out to Greg’s children, Linda and Tina, and all his grandchildren. I know he loved you all very much. Will always love you Greg!

“ My brother Greg & I didn't see each other too frequently, but every time we did, he gave me a big smile & a great big hug. Recently he located parts to fix my totalled van, brought the parts to my home & put them on. He made my life a whole lot better. I wish he was still here so I could thank him again & plan something fun to do together. I will miss him. Sara Cleland.
