

Gregory G. Howell

June 10, 1960 - January 3, 2026

The Wolf moon set on the life of Gregory "Greg" Gerard Howell on January 3rd, 2026 after a short battle with cancer.

Gregory was a family man with 3 children, 1 grandchild, and a beautiful wife that he treasured and loved everyday for over 38 years. His unwavering dedication to living everyday of his life to the fullest often started with long morning walks and ended with crackling bonfires and games of darts in his retirement. Not only was he a family man, loved by every person he encountered, he was also an artist who twisted and melted metal into whimsical and uniquely elegant sculpture.

His contagious laugh, mischievous sense of humor, and generous heart was felt by everyone. Proceeded in death by father and mother Robert Howell and Mary Howell (Roose), siblings Robert (Mardy), Joanne Smith (Ron), and Danny (Lisa).

Survived by wife, Mary Howell, daughter, Angela Littleton (Gregory), sons, Anthony (Julia), Leo (T.J.), grandson, Luke, siblings, Brian (Kris), and Judy Detloff (Larry), and many loved nieces and nephews.

The world is a darker place with his vibrant flame extinguished and he will be terribly missed by every person who was lucky enough to see and feel his incredible light.

“ I am Mr. and Mrs. Howell's tax preparer I have worked with them for years, I am so sad to hear the news of his passing, I don't like to be cliché but he was a really good guy, always had a smile on his face even when I harrassed him. I wish I could have one more visit to cause him grief. I am going to miss this man man. May he REST IN PEACE.

“ Greg was a great guy. We worked together as partners for many years. He taught me a lot. He made his own way. His talent on being able to manipulate metal into practical uses and works of art were beyond Chryslers imagination. Greg did the imagining for them. Mostly with total success. His work ethic was second to none. He was an absolute anomaly. I've never met anyone like him. He was a driven man. Very inspiring. He loved his family very much. He really never had anything bad to say about anyone. He was taken way too quickly. I guarantee he had more to do. He will be missed by all who knew him.
