“ Harry was one of my favorite people to work with at Mueller. I regret that I never got to see him after his retirement and that was my loss. I wish the family sincere condolences. God Bless.

“ The hardest thing that I have had to do in this world is say goodbye to my best friend and Dad. You provided so much knowledge and wealth which I always measured in the amount of animals that we always had growing up. As your daughter, I don't believe that a greater person ever walked this earth, Dad than you. My most treasured memories are so many that I can not put them to paper. You were the most devoted Dad, and always involved in everything that we did. You were always involved with everything your grandchildren and surrogate grandchildren did that you helped guide and encourage along the way. I will miss our morning talks at 7:00 am everyday more than anything. I have been so blessed to have such a loving Dad and will treasure all the amazing memories stored in my heart until we meet again. I love you and if love alone could have kept you here, you would have lived forever.
Rest in peace, Dad.
Love Always,
Terrie
