

Harry "Butch" E. McCoy

January 9, 1939 - February 19, 2024

Harry "Butch" McCoy age 85 of Burtchville, passed away peacefully on February 19, 2024, with his loving family by his side.

He served honorably in the United States Air Force, from 1957 to 1961.

Harry known as "Butch" was loved by many, everyone that knew him said he was a great man!

He was the neighborhood handyman, and he could fix anything. Harry built homes for many years, then worked for and retired from Wirtz Manufacturing, where he was a machinist.

He loved to hunt and snowmobile, but his passion was fishing. He was best known for his boat "Super Dude".

Most importantly, he loved his wife Karen, daughter, Shelly, and his four-legged friend "Daisy".

Services will be private.

Arrangements in care of Jowett Funeral Home.

“ Butch was one of my brother Bob's life long friends

We all lived in Lakeport, Mi

Heartfelt thoughts to Karen and Shelly with hugs

Butch will be missed, but fond memories will last forever.

I know his spirit is now with my brother Bob where they are hanging out together again

God's blessings always ❤️ 🙏
