“ Uncle Howard was an amazing man with an incredible kindness and generosity of spirit. He was such a big part of my life growing up, and was one of the main male role models in my life. I am a better person for having known him, and having loved him.

“ Howard was my nephew as a little boy he loved to follow me where ever i went. One nite he wanted to sleep in my bed with me and promised he wouldn't wet the bed (he was 3 at the time) so we are laying there and he ask me why i didn't have a husband. I told him well I'm not married. he replied well Auntie Sharon I'll marry you!!! That was the sweetest thing I've ever heard. Howard will always be in my heart I love you Howard Jerry R.I.P sweetie

“ There are so memories of Howard I could share, but that would take days to read and write them all.....my favorite one was, when we all were young and in the Summer, JoAnne, Howard and Carol, would spend every summer with us on the homestead, we later refered to as the "ZOO" when we became adults. But anyway, Howard and his sibs and me and lori and Bobby and Ryan , always had to do garden work and housework and such. One day, while we all had to pick green beans, we had at least 4 paper grocery bags full, we had to sit at the picnic table and snap them all.....well Howard didn't want to anymore and he just sat at the table pouting.....my dad hollers out, " Howard, get snapping them beans".....Little Howard says, in such a low voice so that we barely could hear him, " snap them yourself old man", and my dad Hollers back, "what did you say".....Howard just says, " nothing Grandpa".....lol
